September 2015 – Our Month of Excellence

Daniel 6:3 ESV

“Then this Daniel became distinguished above all the other presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.”

We are called to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. According to Isa. 8:18 we are to show forth his praise and power by being signs and wonders to our generation. We must choose to dismantle the unnecessary things in our lives and ministry that hinder our pursuit of an excellent walk in Jesus. Those who excel in their walk with Christ and in this life, live by biblical principles, not by emotion, by peer or familial influence and pressure, nor by personal comfort or self-gratification. God hates mediocrity (Rev. 3:15) and he calls us to live lives that exalt Him. Excellence is not a skill – it is an attitude that touches every area of your life. Excellence is a direction and not a destination. We must always strive to be do things and be better.

If we are going to distinguish ourselves in Fargo and become leaders in every aspect of life and ministry in Fargo then we ought to pursue excellence! It is against this backdrop that the Month of September has been declared our month of Excellence. In this month of September, the spirit of excellence will come upon you and you will excel in your marriage, your job, business, health, education, in ministry and life. The spirit of excellence will distinguish you and expose you to higher dimensions of possibilities. Failure and disappointment will be a thing of the past. Frustration and heartache will not know where you live. Success and achievement will be your new name. In Jesus Name!

Some Scriptures on Excellence

Daniel 6:3

Then this Daniel became distinguished above all the other presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.

Colossians 3:23

Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men,

2 Peter 1:3-4

His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire.

2 Corinthians 8:7

But as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you—see that you excel in this act of grace also.

Joshua 1:8

This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

Proverbs 22:29

Do you see a man skillful in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before obscure men.

2 Timothy 3:16

All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training

Ps. 118:10-12

All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD will I destroy them. They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them. They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

Deut. 28:13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

Jer. 1:19

And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.
